

After listening to the audio tapes from the ARRL, I do not see any redeaming benefits for anyone. The whole hf spectrum is being interferred with, not just ham frequencies. If a commercial station put out this kind of interference, the FCC would be notified and no doubt track the interference down. James Hill, Hanford, Ca.